GENERAL EXHIBITION RULES

The general rules on participation at the International Fair „TIMOD EXPO“ contain binding instructions, which regulate application, exhibiting and business activities at fairs, based on which the binding relationship between the organizer and the exhibitors, is being established.

APPLICATION

Article 1

Application to exhibit is to be submitted on the standard application form, filled with block letters, signed and stamped and to be returned on the address of organizer. Following the same procedure, all appendixes are to be submitted along with the application form.

By submitting the application, the exhibitor agrees with the regulations of the General exhibition rules at the Fair, and enters in obligatory relation with the organizer. Upon arrival of correctly filled, signed and stamped form the organizer shall send to exhibitor draft of stand for consent. The exhibitor is obligated within 3 days to return written confirmation and any other remarks. On contrary the draft shall be considered excepted. For all additional changes organizer shall calculate price increased for 30%.

Article 2

The application /entry form for exhibit is valid only for the company/organization/institution /it means obligation of exhibitors to register exhibits, dispossess from opening until closing ceremony of Fair with constant presence of liable person in charge of stand. Leaving the Fair before the closing is not allowed.

The signed and booked exhibitor can not underlet leased space. Otherwise, they will be eliminated from the Fair with all related costs to cover in total sum of previously ordered services.

II PAYMENT

Article 3

Along with the filled, signed and stamped application form, the exhibitor has to submit the invoice on payment for the application fee in amount of 100 euros. □

(application entry fee and Fair catalogue entry).

The application without submission of the copy of invoice on amount of application fee in this case organizer does not have any further obligations (for entry to Fair catalogue or printing exhibitors pass).

Article 4

After receipt of the duly submitted application, the organizer will issue an invoice, which total amount the applicant is obliged to pay within the term of payment stated on the invoice, and not later than 15 days before the beginning of the Fair. All costs of bank-commission are to be borne by the exhibitor.

The exhibitor can deny the invoice in a written form within 5 days after the date of issuance, but he is obliged to pay the indisputable amount within the above stated period. By issuing of the invoice, the organizer confirms the fulfillment of all invoiced orders to the exhibitor.

The invoices towards the exhibitors from Bosnia and Herzegovina are to be paid in BAM and towards the exhibitors from abroad are to be paid in EUR. In case of EUR inflation, the organizer is allowed to perform price corrections.

Article 5

Depending on the available space, the organizer can accept an application and payment after the deadline for entry, in this case organizer holds a right to increase all prices on behalf of increased costs.

Article 6

Orders during the Fair are to be paid immediately. The organizer reserves the right to hold the exhibits, exhibitor equipment and other property of the exhibitor at the exhibitor's expense, until all due costs are covered. The organizer reserves the right to sell the retained items if the exhibitor does not settle the obligations within 30 days.

III TAKING OVER THE EXHIBITION SPACE

Article 7

The exhibition space is awarded in principle according to the receipt of the registration form and payment. The exhibitor takes over the assigned stand in reception area of the Fair on the base of evidence on payment of the required amount and total sum of other fair services ordered.

Article 8

If the exhibitor does not register at the reception office and take over the ordered exhibition space within and not later than 24 hours before the beginning of the Fair, his exhibition will be considered as cancelled, so the organizer can, if necessary, assign the stand to another exhibitor. The stand is to be taken over based on the official record. In case of missing overtaken stand material, the exhibitor must pay the renting price enlarged by 300% immediately on the Fair. The exhibitor is obliged to vacate the exhibition space within 2 days after the official closing of the Fair. Otherwise, it will be done by the organizer at the exhibitor's expense.

IV EXHIBITION CANCELLATION

Article 9

The applicant can cancel his exhibition under the following conditions:

- 30 days before the beginning of the Fair, in which case the payment, except the compulsory amount will be refunded

- 15 days before the beginning of the Fair, in which case 50% of the payment will be refunded, meaning a new invoice in the amount of 50% for ordered services will be covered.

Cancellations less than 10 days before the beginning of the Fair are not possible and the organizer will not refund the paid amount but issue an invoice to the exhibitor for incurred expenses. Cancellations are to be announced in a written form, the deadlines are to be followed from the date of the receipt of the cancellation notice in the headquarters of the Fair.

V SPECIAL REGULATIONS

Article 10

If the exhibitor sets up the stand by himself, he is obliged to comply with rules and regulations for technical safety, the organizer's instructions and international fairs' common standards. The approval of the organizer is needed for setting up larger and more complicated stands by the exhibitor himself. Arrangement works of exhibition and advertising space must be finished the day before the Fair opening, not later than 18 hours before the Fair opening. The exhibitor has to dispose of every type of waste on the waste disposal place as defined by the organizer.

Article 11

The exhibitors are responsible for insuring their own equipment and exhibition assets against theft, damage, destruction and other risks with the official exhibition insurance provider, or with another insurance organization – as well as for submitting proof of insurance to the exhibition organization body. The insurance of the exhibitors' assets must cover the unloading at the exhibition site, the exhibition itself, as well as the loading for transport at the end of the exhibition. Should an exhibitor cause any damage to the expense of the organization body, another exhibitor or a third party, they are obligated to compensate for the caused damage according to the General Exhibition Rules.

During the preparations, duration and dismantling of the stand, the exhibitors act in accordance to the local law on Safety at work, Health, Fire Safety, and Environment Protection, as well as in accordance with Major Exhibition Terms and Conditions defined by TIMOD EXPO. The exhibitors bear full responsibility for any damages resulting from non-compliance with mentioned rules and regulations.

Article 12

All other business activities, except of exhibitions, are regulated by special conditions in bilateral relationship with the organizer and exhibitor and are executed based on a mutual consent in written form.

The previous item's regulation also refers to the exhibitor performing these activities outside the assigned exhibition space.

Article 13

The working hours of the Fair for exhibitors are from 09:00 to 19:00, for visitors from 10:00 to 18:00.

Article 14

The cleaning of the common fairgrounds is the obligation of the organizer

Article 15

In case the date of the Fair is changed due to a force majeure, the exhibitor cannot request refunds from the organizer. The organizer will provide a new date of the Fair to the exhibitor immediately after the reason for the change of the date has occurred.
